

Continue

Given article text here Survey datasets including ongoing HIV testing, GPS datasets, SPA datasets, and abortion questions surveying pregnancy histories. Additionally, datasets cover alcohol consumption, birth registration, calendar events, CAPI surveys, cervical cancer screening, cooking fuel, fieldworker characteristics, GPS/georeferenced surveys, health insurance, HIV behavior, HIV knowledge, iodine salt tests, malaria questions, male circumcision self-reported data, men's surveys, micronutrients, migration history, and tobacco use. Tobacco products: Inquiry into individuals' awareness and perceptions. Relevant for both women and men. Core questionnaire components: * Tuberculosis-related questions * Women's status inquiries (decision-making, land ownership, bank usage) * These modules can be applied to both women and men. Biomarkers: * Anemia testing details unavailable * Anthropometry information not available Modules: * Chronic diseases: Questions about non-communicable diseases, applicable to both women and men. * Disability: Physical disability assessment for household members aged 5 and older. * Domestic violence: Lifetime experience of domestic violence; typically asked of women, but sometimes also of men. * Female genital cutting: Inquiry into women's experiences with female genital cutting (circumcision/mutilation), as well as their daughters' experiences if under 14. * Fistula: Questions about obstetric fistula symptoms experienced by women. * Food insecurity experience scale (FIES): Assessment of the household's ability to access sufficient food quantity and quality, developed by the United Nations' Food and Agriculture Organization. * Newborn care: Inquiry into mothers' provision of critical child survival care for their last live birth within 35 months prior to the interview. * Social & behaviour change communication (SBCC): Women's perceptions about malaria knowledge, attitudes, and exposure to media messages.

Demographic health survey 2022. National demographic and health survey 2022. What is demographic health survey. 2017 national demographic and health survey. National demographic and health survey. National demographic and health survey 2020.