I am not looking to follow others or pull them down. Im planning to test my own boundaries.Ive always wanted to be a singer and an actor. I will continue to concentrate on both because I love both.Endless effort, endless humility, endless modesty.The more criticism I get, the more it gives me a stronger urge to win. So I try harder.I was told that when Im dancing, I give off the feeling of a rainy day.In Korea, when I started, there wasnt a trend where people chose to be both actors and singers. I was the first to do both. It was a great deal hard work, but I got a lot of support and love from my audience. And for me to receive the same treatment overseas, I felt that I was also very lucky.I want to challenge myself to see where my limit is and experiment with a lot of different films. A lot of artists from Asia focus too much on their Asian background. I dont want to let go of my background, but to be a success in the U.S., which is my goal, I realize I need to surround myself with American filmmakers and producers.FAQsWho is Rain?He is a South Korean actor, singer, and songwriter.Who is Rains real name?His real name is Jung Ji Hoon ().What makes Rain famous?He rose to prominence through his successful musical career, as well as his appearances in various drama series such as inSang Doo!
