Which character is known for his addiction to alcohol? 2. Who is the main character of the series? Answer: Katniss is the main character. She struggles against the Capitol's defenses and is the leader of the rebellion going against the Capitoles. She has a lot to live through such as the Capitol, the Hunger Games and so much more. 3. Traditionally, how many tributes are there all together from all twelve districts? Answer: There have always been 24 tributes in The Hunger Games, two from each district. The Hunger Games' purpose was to show people that no one can win against the Capitol, which was not true. The purpose of The Hunger Games was either kill or be killed. 4. Does Caesar Flickerman change his hair color each time the Hunger Games are on? 5. Snow was the president of Panem before the war in 'Mockingjay' began. Answer: The president is one of those people whom many would hate and despise. This is because he has caused them so much trouble. He does die in the end. He is very wise but despicable at the same time. 6. Who is Katniss' stylist, other than her prep team? Answer: Cinna is the type of person who wants to set an example. He once said that whatever he does hurts her more than it hurts others. He did die too, which was really sad especially for Katniss because she pretty much saw Cinna get beaten to death. 7. Katniss was known as the girl who was on fire. 8. What do both Katniss' and Primrose's names mean? Answer: Both their names are the names of flowers. Very nice ones too. Their names fit perfectly with their personalities. You find out about the meaning of their names in the first book, although you probably would have already known that Primrose's name meant flower before they told you. 9. How are Katniss and Primrose related? Answer: They are sisters. Katniss is older than Primrose by four years. Katniss cares about her sister more than anyone. It was very sad when Primrose died, which was part of the reason why Katniss killed President Coin of District 13. 10. Katniss has a nickname for Primrose.
